1. Qualitative Information on Quarterly Financial Results Explanation of Operating Results

During the nine months ended December 31, 2024, the Japanese economy gradually recovered and social and economic activities increased amid improvement in the employment and income situation, despite the downside risks posed to the economy by the depreciation of the yen and rising prices. However, there is still a high degree of uncertainty in the outlook, with global instability, supply-side constraints and financial and capital market volatility.

In the pharmaceutical wholesale business sector, which is the Group's main business, the drug price revisions in April 2024 cut approximately ¥120 billion from national healthcare costs and, going forward, discussions aimed at radically reforming policies and systems related to people's lives and health such as the social security system and the drug pricing system are likely to increase and the policy of curbing drug costs is likely to be maintained.

Under these circumstances, during the fiscal year under review, which is the final fiscal year under the Group's fifth Medium-term Management Plan, the Group aims to complete a number of practical tasks and achieve its profit plan, while at the same time working together on initiatives for realization of its Long-term Vision 2035, which is "Beyond medicine, beyond barriers. Innovating the future of medical care by being a "connector"."

During the third quarter of the consolidated fiscal year under review, the pharmaceutical wholesale business saw increased sales of products eligible for the price maintenance premium, such as anticancer drugs, and various vaccines, growing sales of influenza test kits and treatments associated with a surge in cases at the end of the year, and contributions to sales expansion from major operating subsidiaries VITAL-NET, Inc. (headquartered in Sendai-shi) and KSK Co., Ltd. (headquartered in Osaka-shi).

In addition, KSK Co., Ltd. established the Women's Healthcare Solutions (WHS) Department, a sales organization consisting mainly of women to respond to diseases and health problems that are specific to women and have come to light with the social advancement of women. The department began operating in July 2024. They promote sales activities targeting obstetric and gynecological departments utilizing their specialized expertise, and the effects of their activities, including their contribution to the expansion of sales channels and sales growth, have quickly become apparent.

Gross profit increased due to the aforementioned growth of revenue and price negotiations with an eye on trading costs, something the Company has consistently worked on, despite the absence of the proceeds from the government-commissioned delivery of COVID-19 vaccines posted in the previous year. At the same time, a reaction to the reversal of allowance for doubtful accounts in the previous year and an increase in selling, general and administrative expenses, including investments in information systems, resulted in a slight year-on-year decrease in operating profit and ordinary profit.

While the Company initially planned to post extraordinary income from the sale of cross-held shares in the fourth quarter, the Company sold most of the shares it planned to sell in the third quarter, taking into account trends in the stock market during the fiscal period under review, and posted \(\frac{1}{2}\)3,351 million as extraordinary income.

As a result, for the nine months ended December 31, 2024, net sales were \(\frac{\pma}{4}460,680\) million (102.6\% of that of the same period of the previous year), operating profit was \(\frac{\pma}{5},406\) million (95.5\% of that of the same period of the previous year), ordinary profit was \(\frac{\pma}{6},419\) million (98.7\% of that of the same period of the previous year), and profit attributable to owners of parent was \(\frac{\pma}{6},459\) million (127.8\% of that of the same period of the previous year).

Performance results by business segment are as follows.

1) Pharmaceutical Wholesale Business

In the nine months ended December 31, 2024, net sales of the pharmaceutical wholesale business increased slightly, reflecting growth in sales of influenza treatments due to the surge in cases mentioned earlier and growth in sales of products eligible for the price maintenance premium, such as anticancer drugs, original drugs, the cervical cancer vaccine and the COVID-19 vaccine that started being given to patients in October. This growth offset the loss of revenue due to the impact of the NHI drug price revision and the negative impact of matters in other areas such as the year-on-year decline in sales of COVID-19-related products (sales of drugs, test kits, etc. for the treatment of COVID-19 and sales from the government-commissioned delivery of COVID-19 vaccines). Profit grew year on year, mainly due to the effect of this sales growth.

Profit decreased slightly year on year, mainly due to a reaction to the reversal of allowance for doubtful accounts in the previous year and investments in information systems, which more than offset the increase in gross profit that was primarily a result of the aforementioned growth of revenue.

As a result, net sales were $\frac{434,162}{100}$ million (102.6% of that of the same period of the previous year), and segment profit (operating profit) was $\frac{45,075}{100}$ million (97.4% of that of the same period of the previous year).

2) Pharmacy Business

The pharmacy business achieved sales growth, mainly due to efforts to expand income from dispensing technical fees and income from pharmaceutical management fees, despite a decrease in the the number of prescriptions received. However, profit fell, mainly due to the impact of NHI drug price revisions and longer duration prescriptions. As a result, net sales were \\pm$14,676 million (102.7% of that of the same period of the previous year), and segment profit (operating profit) was \\\pm$171 million (66.3% of that of the same period of the previous year).

3) Veterinary Drug Wholesale Business

4) Other Businesses

Other businesses reported a smaller segment loss, mainly due to the recovery of sales in each business. As a result, net sales were \(\frac{\pma}{3}\),071 million (105.1% of that of the same period of the previous year), and segment loss (operating loss) was \(\frac{\pma}{108}\) million (segment loss for the same period of the previous year was \(\frac{\pma}{162}\) million).

(3) Notes to Quarterly Consolidated Financial Statements

(Significant matters that serve as the basis for the preparation of quarterly consolidated financial statements)

The quarterly consolidated financial statements are prepared in accordance with Article 4, Paragraph 1 of Standards for Preparation of Quarterly Financial Statements of the Tokyo Stock Exchange, Inc. and accounting principles generally accepted in Japan for quarterly financial statements, applying the provisions for reduced disclosures as set forth in Article 4, Paragraph 2 of the Standards.

(Notes on going concern assumption)

For the nine months ended December 31, 2024 (from April 1, 2024 to December 31, 2024) Not applicable.

(Notes in the case of significant changes in amount of shareholders' equity)

For the nine months ended December 31, 2024 (from April 1, 2024 to December 31, 2024) Not applicable.

(Accounting policies adopted specially for the preparation of quarterly consolidated financial statements)

Calculation of tax expenses

Tax expenses are calculated by the method in which the effective tax rate on profit before income taxes for the current consolidated fiscal year after application of tax effect accounting is reasonably estimated, and profit before income taxes was multiplied by the estimated effective tax rate.

(Changes in accounting policies)

(Application of the Accounting Standard for Current Income Taxes, etc.)

The Company has been applying the Accounting Standard for Current Income Taxes (ASBJ Statement No. 27, October 28, 2022; hereinafter the "Revised Accounting Standard 2022") since the beginning of the first three months of the fiscal year under review. Regarding revisions to the accounting classification for corporate taxes, etc. (taxation on other comprehensive income), the Company conformed to the specific transitional provisions prescribed in the provisory clause under Paragraph 20-3 of the Revised Accounting Standard 2022 and the specific transitional provisions prescribed in the provisory clause under Paragraph 65-2(2) of the Implementation Guidance on Tax Effect Accounting (ASBJ Guidance No. 28 of October 28, 2022; hereinafter, "Revised Accounting Guidance 2022"). This change in accounting policies has no impact on the quarterly consolidated financial statements.

In response to the revised guidance on the deferral of gains/losses on the sale of shares in subsidiary between consolidated companies for tax purposes that are recorded in the consolidated financial statements, the Company has been applying the Revised Accounting Guidance 2022 since the beginning of the first three months of the fiscal year under review. This change in accounting policy is applied retroactively, and the change is reflected in the quarterly consolidated financial statements and consolidated financial statements for the previous fiscal year. The change in accounting policy has no impact on the quarterly consolidated financial statements or consolidated financial statements for the previous fiscal year.

(Segment information)

1. Overview of reportable segments

The Group's reportable segments are components of the Group about which separate financial information is available. These segments are subject to periodic examinations to enable the company's Board of Directors to decide how to allocate resources and assess performance.

The Group's segment is categorized based on the business of its operating company, and thus its main segments, the "Pharmaceutical Wholesale Business," the "Pharmacy Business," and the "Veterinary Drug Wholesale Business" comprise the Group's reportable segments.

The "Pharmaceutical Wholesale Business" is engaged in sales of drugs, diagnostic products, medical devices, materials, etc. to medical institutions, such as hospitals, clinics, and pharmacies. The "Pharmacy Business" is engaged in sales of drugs, medical devices and equipment, and hygiene materials, etc. to general consumers. The "Veterinary Drug Wholesale Business" is engaged in sales of veterinary drugs, feeds, etc. to farms, ranches, veterinary hospitals, clinics, etc.

2. Method of measurement for the amounts of net sales, profit (loss), assets and other items for each reportable segment

The method of accounting for the reportable business segments is generally the same as those stated in "Basis for the Presentation of the Consolidated Financial Statements."

Profit in the reportable segments is based on operating profit.

Inter-segment revenues and transfers are calculated at prevailing market prices.

3. Information on net sales, profit (loss), assets and other items by reportable segment For the nine months ended December 31, 2023 (from April 1, 2023 to December 31, 2023)
